Dated Bangalore, 16th September 1918.

To—All Heads of Departments and Offices.

SIR,

Frequent requisitions are received in this office for information regarding Personal Advances made to Government Officers and the adjustments of such advances and this shows that no account of advances drawn and of their repayment is maintained in offices in which the debtors are working. It is essential that a proper record of such advances should be kept in all offices and I have, therefore, the honor to request that a register in the annexed form may be opened at once and maintained in each office showing the particulars of advances drawn and repaid by all Non-Gazetted Officers to whom any of the undermentioned advances are made:—

1. House-building Advances.
2. Motor Cycle Advances.
3. Loan-Scholarships and other Educational Advances.
4. Indian War Loan Advances.
5. Advances referred to in Article 137, Civil Account Code.
6. Miscellaneous, such as value of sites due.

2. A separate register for each kind of advance is not necessary but a separate sheet may be allotted in the Register for each individual who has drawn any advance.

3. Whenever an official is transferred to another office, an extract from the Register relating to his advance account may be sent to the new office along with the Last Pay Certificate. The register may be opened to show all transactions from the 1st July 1918.
